The image shows a musical score for the hymn 'Happily'. It is written in 3/4 time. The score is divided into three parts: Counter-melody, Piano 1, and Piano 2. The Counter-melody part is a single line of music. The Piano 1 part consists of two staves (treble and bass clef). The Piano 2 part also consists of two staves (treble and bass clef). The music is written in 3/4 time and features a simple melody with chords and single notes. The Counter-melody part is optional and suggested for use in verse 2. The Piano 1 part is an enhanced piano accompaniment, and the Piano 2 part is a regular piano accompaniment as found in the current Children's Songbook of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

The musical score consists of three staves. The top staff is a single treble clef staff with a '5' above the first measure, containing four whole rests. The middle system is labeled 'Pno. 1' and contains two staves (treble and bass clef). The treble staff has a '5' above the first measure and contains chords and single notes. The bass staff contains a melodic line. The bottom system is labeled 'Pno. 2' and contains two staves (treble and bass clef). The treble staff has a '5' above the first measure and contains a melodic line with a slur over the last two measures. The bass staff contains a steady eighth-note accompaniment. The lyrics 'There's a' are positioned below the bottom right of the score.
