

DANIEL IN THE LIONS' DEN

Words by Clark Saunders

Music by Craig Cassils

A lively retelling of the familiar story about Daniel's faith and courage.

Oh, Daniel in the Lions' Den:
I know the story very well.
An angel shut the lions' mouths,
and Daniel lived, the tale to tell.

The King had said, "Forget your God;
bow down and worship only me."
But Daniel worshipped God alone,
no matter what the price would be.

Oh, Daniel in the Lions' Den:
Was anyone so bold and brave?
An angel shut the lions' mouths
in order Daniel's life to save.

The King saw Daniel, still alive;
he said, "Release him; set him free."
"His God is worthy of respect,"
the King declared in a decree.

Oh, Daniel in the Lions' Den:
His faith was tested hard, but then
an angel shut the lions' mouths,
and Daniel, oh, Daniel, yes, Daniel,
he lived to praise his God again. Yeah!
